Knife Fights A Memoir Of

"A magnificent memoir from one of the most brilliant officers of his generation. Knife Fights details John Nagl's journey from the halls of West Point and Oxford to the battlefields of Desert Storm and Operation Iraqi Freedom, as well as his struggles and triumphs among Washington's power elite. Highly recommended for those who seek to understand how the Army overcame its initial dysfunction to wage the messy counterinsurgency wars in Iraq and Afghanistan."

I enjoyed Knife Fights: A Memoir of Modern War in Theory and Practice, especially the comparisons of the modern wars in which the United States has engaged to wars in the past such as Desert Storm and Vietnam. The book backs up John Nagl's claims that now, more than ever, counterinsurgency is key to combat operations for the United States.
